“Masks”

Halloween was a great holiday growing up. My brother and I got to put on a costume, walk around the little town we lived in, and get candy from neighbors just for saying, “Trick or Treat?” Many times, they would say something like, “Oh, you’re scary,” “That’s a good costume,” or “Who are you behind that mask?” We only revealed who we were if we weren’t planning on being a little mischievous later!

Later in life I had the opportunity to meet a wonderful gentleman by the name of James Freeman. It was during the disco days and James could dance! But as we walked around the campus at our little community college, James was shy and introverted. He was a warm but humble person. But when he got on the dance floor, it was as if he became a different person. Later in our academic careers, we both transferred to the University of Arkansas. James was still the same quiet, humble person I knew a few years before, but he became the Dancing Razorback. I knew who it was inside that suit. It was my humble, quiet friend. But when James put on that Razorback costume, it was as if he was transformed into someone else. He was able to hide behind a mask and entertain people without them knowing the real person inside the suit.

Thinking about being transformed or being different to different people, do we not do that as adults? I mean, do we not wear different masks or have different personas for different areas of our lives? If we are honest with ourselves, the answer is not one we like.

Counseling at-risk youth at a position, I would tell them to be honest with themselves, and to basically be who they are. God made them a specific way and the best person they could be is that one person. Sure, they could act like they were someone different, essentially putting on a mask, but could they be the best in that role? Eventually they would get the idea.

In His “Sermon on the Mount,” Jesus spoke these words: “No one can serve two masters; for a slave will either hate the one and love the other, or be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and wealth.” On the outside, we can play the part and appear to be devoted to any movement or group, but on the inside something just doesn’t seem quite right. The mask we wear for this group doesn’t quite fit. Or the persona we portray at one civic group doesn’t line up with the persona we have at church. How can we justify both, or maybe even more? The fact is we can’t.

A person who doubts themselves is said to be scripturally like a double-minded person. James writes, “for the doubter, being double-minded and unstable in every way, must not expect to receive anything from the Lord.”

Do you pray and doubt? Are you unstable in your Christian walk? My advice is to take off every mask you have, be who you really are in Christ, and let God build the real you up! Remember, a house built on unstable sand cannot stand.

We are looking for people who have a big smile and open arms to join our hospitality teams!

Hospitality teams serve about once every 4-5 weeks.

Duties are fun: hand out bulletins, make and set up coffee, set out snacks, put out attendance books, collect offerings, clean up after Sunday service, etc.

And most important of all, welcome members and new visitors with a Smile!

As Pastor Doug says, "Our greeters make the first impression on our members and guests as they enter Mountainside to worship and fellowship with us".

Call Donna Mahle for more information or to join.

New Facebook Page

Please check out our new Facebook page HSVmountainsidemethodistchurch and hit follow. There will be some things posted to that page. Right now, we are trying to show the church service livestream to the new page on Sunday afternoons.

We need 100 followers so that on February 14 we are hoping to go live on the new page and not have to use the old page!

Directory on your Smartphone

Do you want to add the Mountainside Pictorial Directory to your Smart Phone?

OR if you already have the app on your smart phone is YOUR data profile correct?

To add the directory to your smart phone go to your app store (Apple app or Google Play), select search and type in:

Instant Church Directory

The apple icon will be a pea green square with a white church in the center (it may be the same icon in Google Play). Select get and download the app. When you open the app, you will be prompted to enter your email address (it must be the same email address Mountainside uses for you). You will be prompted then to create your own privately selected password.

After loading, open the app, select Families and you will see all Mountainside families with pictures. Tap the picture and get addresses, phone numbers, etc. There are other special features to explore, like, Birthdays, Anniversaries, etc.

IF you do not like your picture or later want to update it, send a new picture to Stacy and she will replace it. You can do the same if any of your own data profile is incorrect.
