

OUTREACH

Jesus said He came to give life, and give it more abundantly. At Mountainside, you can find many ways to live out that abundant life—time in worship and fellowship with others, in service to others in our community and our world, and by growing in discipleship and helping others grow in their faith.

